

CURRICULUM GUIDE FOR PARENTS & CARERS

Subject Curriculum Focus Homework and useful weblink Art Student will learn about sustainable ways to create artwork through recycled collage and sculpture in the style of Potianne Stevenson. Computing Students are starting a new unit on programming using Python to draw simple to complex shapes. Drama We are enjoying Acting Without Words, moving on to silent comedy, classic routines with gibberish but no diologue and impressive tricks. English Students will be studying Romeo and Juliet by William Shakespeare. They will be tracking and writing about key themes in the play. Geography Students will continue with a continent study of Africa focusing on the benefits and challenges of a youthful population and the impacts of urbanisation. History Students are learning about the early 20th century to prepare for a study on the causes of WWI in 1914. They will then learn about the soldiers' experiences. Maths Students will continue to explore classical music and be introduced to features of programme music. PE Students will continue to explore classical music and be introduced to features of programme music. PE Students will continue to explore classical music and be introduced to features of programme music. PE Students will continue to explore classical music and be introduced to features of programme music. PE Students will continue to explore classical music and be introduced to features of programme music. PE Students will continue to explore classical music and be introduced to features of programme music. PE Students will continue to explore classical music and be introduced to features of programme music. PE Students will be looking at the modern use of ethics. Studying how the modern world is impacted by the choices we make, and where our ethics come from. Science Students will be learning all about, waves, natural selection and inheritance and electricity Students will be set on Satch One. Students will talk about food – likes, dislikes and mealtimes Students will continue to learn about the	Spring Term 2 Year 8		Whole academy focus: Stretch and Challenge, knowledge retrieval and use of feedback to redraft answers
Art Student will learn about sustainable ways to create artwork through recycled collage and sculpture in the style of Patianne Stevenson. Computing Students are starting a new unit on programming using Python to draw simple to complex shapes. Drama We are enjoying Acting Without Words, moving on to silent comedy, classic routines with gibberish but no dialogue and impressive tricks. English Students will be studying Romeo and Juliet by William Shakespeare. They will be tracking and writing about key themes in the play. Geography Students will continue with a continent study of Africa focusing on the benefits and challenges of a youthful population and the impacts of urbanisation. History Students are learning about the early 20th century to prepare for a study on the causes of WWI in 1914. They will then learn about the soldiers' experiences. Maths Students will learn how to calculate fractions and percentages of amounts, including increasing and decreasing leading on to an introduction to standard form. Music Students will continue to explore classical music and be introduced to features of programme music. PE Students will continue to develop their understanding of invasion games (Gaelic football) and gymnastics. RS Students will be looking at the modern use of ethics. Studying how the modern world is impacted by the choices we make, and where our ethics come from. Science Students will talk about food – likes, dislikes and mealtimes Students will talk about food – likes, dislikes and mealtimes Students will continue to learn about the design, make, evaluate and adapt process. In artwork through recycled collage and sculpture in the style of Patianne Stevenson. Computing Students are starting a new unit on programming using Python to draw simple to complex shapes. Drama We are enjoying Acting Without Words, moving on to silent comedy, classic routines with gibberish but no dialogue and impressive tricks. English Students will be studying Romeo and Juliet by William Shakespeare. They will be tracking and writing about key themes in the play. Geography Students will continue with a continent study of Africa focusing on the benefits and challenges of a youthful population and the impacts of urbanisation. History Students are learning about the early 20th century to prepare for a study on the causes of WWI in 1914. They will then learn about the soldiers' experiences. Maths Students will continue to explore classical music and be introduced to features of programme music. PE Students will continue to develop their understanding of invasion games (Gaelic football) and gymnastics. RS Students will be looking at the modern use of ethics. Studying how the modern world is impacted by the choices we make, and where our ethics come from. Students will be learning all about, waves, natural selection and inheritance and electricity Spanish Students will continue to learn about the electricity series and x faster (seneclearning consecutions) and mealtimes Students will continue to learn about the selectricity series and x faster (seneclearning consecutions) and mealtimes Seneca Learn 2x faster (seneclearning consecutions) and mealtimes Seneca Learn 2x faster (seneclearning consecutions) and mealtimes Students will continue to learn about the design, make, evaluate and adapt process. In https://dassroom.theneclearning.com.	Subject	Curriculum Focus	Homework and useful weblinks
Using Python to draw simple to complex shapes. Python uploaded to Satchel Complex shapes. Students will be studying Romeo and Juliet by will be tracking and writing about key themes in the play. Students will continue with a continent study of Africa focusing on the benefits and challenges of a youthful population and the impacts of urbanisation. History Students are learning about the early 20th century to prepare for a study on the causes of WWI in 1914. They will then learn about the soldiers' experiences. Maths Students will learn how to calculate fractions and percentages of amounts, including increasing and decreasing leading on to an introduction to standard form. Music Students will continue to explore classical music and be introduced to features of programme music. PE Students will continue to develop their understanding of invasion games (Gaelic football) and gymnastics. RS Students will be looking at the modern use of ethics. Studying how the modern world is impacted by the choices we make, and where our ethics come from. Science Students will be learning all about, waves, natural selection and inheritance and electricity Spanish Students will continue to learn about the design, make, evaluate and adapt process. In	Art	artwork through recycled collage and sculpture in to silent comedy, classic routines with gibberish but no dialogue and impressive tricks. Finglish Students will be studying Romeo and Juliet by William Shakespeare. They will be tracking and writing about key themes in the play. Geography Students will continue with a continent study of Africa focusing on the benefits and challenges of a youthful population and the impacts of urbanisation. History Students are learning about the early 20th century to prepare for a study on the causes of WWI in 1914. They will then learn about the soldiers' experiences. Maths Students will learn how to calculate fractions and percentages of amounts, including increasing and decreasing leading on to an introduction to standard form. Music Students will continue to explore classical music and be introduced to features of programme music. PE Students will continue to develop their understanding of invasion games (Gaelic football) and gymnastics. RS Students will be looking at the modern use of ethics. Studying how the modern world is impacted by the choices we make, and where our ethics come from. Science Students will be learning all about, waves, natural selection and inheritance and electricity Spanish Students will continue to learn about the design, make, evaluate and adapt process. In	Computing			A range of tasks linked to Python uploaded to Satchel One
William Shakespeare. They will be tracking and writing about key themes in the play. Geography Students will continue with a continent study of Africa focusing on the benefits and challenges of a youthful population and the impacts of urbanisation. History Students are learning about the early 20th century to prepare for a study on the causes of WWI in 1914. They will then learn about the soldiers' experiences. Maths Students will learn how to calculate fractions and percentages of amounts, including increasing and decreasing leading on to an introduction to standard form. Music Students will continue to explore classical music and be introduced to features of programme music. PE Students will continue to develop their understanding of invasion games (Gaelic football) and gymnastics. RS Students will be looking at the modern use of ethics. Studying how the modern world is impacted by the choices we make, and where our ethics come from. Science Students will be learning all about, waves, natural selection and inheritance and electricity Spanish Students will talk about food – likes, dislikes and mealtimes Seneca Learn 2x faster (senecalearing con Seneca Learn 2x faster (s	Drama	to silent comedy, classic routines with gibberish but		Students will love trying further youtube research on stunning comedians such as Buster Keaton Harold Lloyd and GAMARJOBAT.
Africa focusing on the benefits and challenges of a youthful population and the impacts of urbanisation. History Students are learning about the early 20th century to prepare for a study on the causes of WWI in 1914. They will then learn about the soldiers' experiences. Maths Students will learn how to calculate fractions and percentages of amounts, including increasing and decreasing leading on to an introduction to standard form. Music Students will continue to explore classical music and be introduced to features of programme music. PE Students will continue to develop their understanding of invasion games (Gaelic football) and gymnastics. RS Students will be looking at the modern use of ethics. Studying how the modern world is impacted by the choices we make, and where our ethics come from. Science Students will be learning all about, waves, natural selection and inheritance and electricity Students will talk about food – likes, dislikes and mealtimes Students will talk about food – likes, dislikes and mealtimes Students will continue to learn about the design, make, evaluate and adapt process. In	English	William Shakespeare. They will be tracking and		Weekly homework Tasks uploaded to Satchel One.
to prepare for a study on the causes of WWI in 1914. They will then learn about the soldiers' experiences. Maths Students will learn how to calculate fractions and percentages of amounts, including increasing and decreasing leading on to an introduction to standard form. Music Students will continue to explore classical music and be introduced to features of programme music. PE Students will continue to develop their understanding of invasion games (Gaelic football) and gymnastics. RS Students will be looking at the modern use of ethics. Studying how the modern world is impacted by the choices we make, and where our ethics come from. Science Students will be learning all about, waves, natural selection and inheritance and electricity Spanish Students will talk about food – likes, dislikes and mealtimes Sentence builders with activities seneca-Learn 2x Faster (senecalearning.com seneca-Learn 2x Faster (Geography	Africa focusing on the benefits and challenges of a youthful population and the impacts of		Homework set on Satchel 1 percentages of amounts, including increasing and decreasing leading on to an introduction to standard form. Music Students will continue to explore classical music and be introduced to features of programme music. PE Students will continue to develop their understanding of invasion games (Gaelic football) and gymnastics. RS Students will be looking at the modern use of ethics. Studying how the modern world is impacted by the choices we make, and where our ethics come from. Science Students will be learning all about, waves, natural selection and inheritance and electricity Spanish Students will talk about food – likes, dislikes and mealtimes Students will talk about food – likes, dislikes and mealtimes Students will continue to learn about the design, make, evaluate and adapt process. In	History	to prepare for a study on the causes of WWI in 1914.
be introduced to features of programme music. PE Students will continue to develop their understanding of invasion games (Gaelic football) and gymnastics. RS Students will be looking at the modern use of ethics. Studying how the modern world is impacted by the choices we make, and where our ethics come from. Science Students will be learning all about, waves, natural selection and inheritance and electricity Homework will be set on Satchel one. Spanish Students will talk about food – likes, dislikes and mealtimes Seneca - Learn 2x Faster (senecalearning.com Seneca - Learn 2x Faster (senecalearni	Maths	percentages of amounts, including increasing and decreasing leading on to an introduction to their understanding of invasion games (Gaelic football) and gymnastics. RS Students will be looking at the modern use of ethics. Studying how the modern world is impacted by the choices we make, and where our ethics come from. Science Students will be learning all about, waves, natural selection and inheritance and electricity Spanish Students will talk about food – likes, dislikes and mealtimes Sentence builders with activities Seneca - Learn 2x Faster (senecalearning.com Seneca - Learn 2x Faster (senecale	Music			Homework set on class charts Studying how the modern world is impacted by the choices we make, and where our ethics come from. Science Students will be learning all about, waves, natural selection and inheritance and electricity Satchel one. Spanish Students will talk about food – likes, dislikes and mealtimes Seneca - Learn 2x Faster (senecalearning.com Seneca	PE	their understanding of invasion games		N/A selection and inheritance and electricity Satchel one. Spanish Students will talk about food – likes, dislikes and mealtimes Sentence builders with activities Seneca - Learn 2x Faster (senecalearning.com Seneca - Learn 2x Faster (senecalearn	RS	Studying how the modern world is impacted by the		Homework will be set on Satchel One.
mealtimes Seneca - Learn 2x Faster (senecalearning.com Seneca - L	Science
(Rotation) design, make, evaluate and adapt process. In bjects-by-key-stage-key-stage-	Spanish			Sentence builders with activities Seneca - Learn 2x Faster (senecalearning.com) Seneca - Learn 2x Faster (senecalearning.com) Seneca - Learn 2x Faster (senecalearning.com)
and food choice.		design, make, evaluate and adapt process. In Food students will learn about food miles, processing

Students will continue to learn about the importance of positive relationships and the importance of spotting toxic relationships.

Careers

National Careers week with a focus on careers across the curriculum and a STEM workshop with BME systems (RAF and Navy)